

Some Assembly Required

Week Four - "Inside Out and Outside In"

Hebrews 13:10-16

Bottom line: Jesus was an insider who became an outsider, and then eliminated the distinction. We have to go outside if we want to be with Jesus.

1. What are some situations or circumstances where you have felt like, or may have been considered, an "insider"? What is it like to be "an insider"?
2. What are some situations or circumstances where you have felt like, or may have been considered, an "outsider"? What is it like to be "an outsider"?
3. How have you experienced tension between "insiders" and "outsiders" when it comes to church and/or faith?
4. Read Hebrews 13:10-16.
  - a. In what ways was Jesus a religious insider?
  - b. What are some examples you can think of from Jesus' life where he went "outside"?
  - c. Why was it important for Jesus to go outside?
5. What are some ways we can go outside to be with Jesus? What are the challenges or discomforts involved?
6. What are some ways we can bring people inside to be with Jesus? What are the challenges or discomforts involved?
7. How will it cost you to either go outside or bring others inside?
