

Cross My Heart

Week Four - "Together Again"

Ephesians 1:4-10

Bottom line: There is a gap that exists...but there is a way to be put back together again.

1. Have you ever broken anything that couldn't be fixed? What would you put on a list of things that cannot be repaired once broken?
2. What areas of your life feel disjointed or disconnected? How does that add stress and/or tension to your life?
3. Do you struggle to believe God loves you and has forgiven you? What makes that difficult to believe?
4. Read Ephesians 1:4-10. Does it make a difference to know that God wanted to forgive us, not just that he did? How?
5. How does believing things can be put back together again change the way you approach your life?
6. How can you see yourself as both a sinner and a saint?
