PART 3: MO MONEY MO PROBLEMS

Introduction

It's easy to blame money for a lot of our problems. We blame the lack of money and sometimes too much money (usually someone else's). But money itself is amoral. Dave Ramsey describes it like a brick – in the right hands, a brick can be used to build a school. In the wrong hands, it can be used to break a window and steal a car. We cannot blame money either way. Fortunately, Jesus and the early disciples had a lot to offer in the realm of finances and our approach to money.

Discussion Questions

1. How would you describe your relationship with money? Tense? Stressful? Easy? Nonchalant? Worrisome?
2. What were you taught about managing money as you grew up? Who taught you?
3. Make a list of places or stories you remember hearing from the Bible that talk about money. What are some of the teachings that stand out and/or seem confusing to you?
4. Read I Timothy 6:3-10. What warning is being given in these verses? Is loving money the same or different from having money?
5. How do we know if we “love” money?
6. What do you think contentment looks like? What are some practical ways you can pursue contentment over money?
