

Come, Let Us Adore Him

Week One - "Mary's Soundtrack"

Luke 1:39-55

Bottom line: "The songs we sing affect the lives we live." ~Reed Moore

1. What are some of the songs that instantly take you back to a certain event or time in your life?
2. What are the songs you go to when you need comfort? When you're mad? When you're getting psyched up? When you're just feeling good?
3. And just for fun because it's Christmas time: What's your favorite Christmas song? Which one makes you absolutely bananas?
4. Share with your group a time when you felt yourself react to something in a way that was clearly influenced by things you've intentionally placed in your life or in your mind. How might you have reacted differently without those things?
5. Read Luke 1:39-56
 - a. How might you have reacted to the news from Gabriel if you were Mary?
 - b. What are some of the things Mary brought to mind as she processed what was happening to her?
 - c. How was her obedience impacted by what she knew about God?
6. How is our obedience influenced by the person asking? Who are you most likely to obey? Who are you most likely to disobey?
7. Why is worshiping God so critical to how we live our lives?
8. What are some ways you would like to change, or build, the soundtrack of your life?
