

Let's Go

Week four - *"In a Bunker and Out on a Limb"

Joshua 2

Bottom line: God will lead you where you need to go, and not just where you want to go.

1. Have you ever felt like you got a really clear sign about something? What happened, and what was it about the sign that made it feel particularly clear?
2. Have you ever felt like you got a sign, but then circumstances unfolded in a way that made you think you must have misread it? If so, what happened?
3. When making a difficult decision, where do you look and where do you go for guidance?
4. In what ways do you find yourself falling into the trap of confirmation bias?
5. How do you overcome confirmation bias when you're trying to figure out something?
6. Read Joshua 2.
  - a. First of all, feel free to have a discussion on the crazier aspects of this story.
  - b. Why do you think God used Rahab, of all people, to help the two Israelite spies?
  - c. Why is it such a big deal that Rahab is part of the lineage of Jesus? What is God making clear to you and me by including her in such a significant way?
7. What are some ways you know God is with you in the bunkers and out on the limbs? Or, how are you struggling to see God with you in whatever proverbial bunker or limb you may be in now?
