Week Two - "Why are you so afraid?"

Mark 4:35-41

Bottom line: Faith and fear make ready, albeit awkward, dancing partners. It all comes down to the question of which one gets to lead.

1. What are some of the things you're afraid of? Why are you afraid of them?
2. Read Mark 4:35-41
 - a. Do you think it was reasonable for the disciples to be afraid of the storm?
 - b. What do you think they expected when they woke up Jesus?
 - c. Why do you think they were surprised when the wind and waves calmed down?
3. In what ways do your fears drive your faith?
4. How would your fears change if they were being informed and understood through the lens of your faith?
5. What are some of the ways you can call on your faith in the midst of fear?
