Week seven - "Radical Hospitality"

Ephesians 2:11-13 and 1 Peter 4:8-9; also Luke's Gospel

Bottom line: Our fear of others can turn to love of others simply by sharing a table.

1. What and/or who do you think of when you hear the word 'hospitality'?
2. Why do we make meals with our family and friends such a big deal?
3. Share a story of a time you shared a meal with someone who was different from you.
4. How does sharing a meal with someone change the relationship we have with them?
5. Think about some of the meals Jesus had with different people. How did those meals disrupt the understanding of how we are to love people?
6. Read Ephesians 2:11-13. What does Paul mean when he says we were the outsiders who have been brought near?
7. How can you offer radical hospitality to strangers, your neighbors, or anyone in the coming weeks?
