

Things Jesus Didn't Say, week two:

Do What Makes You Happy

John 13:34-35

1. What makes you happy?
2. Do you think of happiness as more of a permanent or temporary state? Why?
3. Have you ever given the advice, "Do what makes you happy"? What was the situation?
4. Can you think of a situation where doing what made you happy led to disappointment?
5. Read John 13:34-35. How is the mandate to "love one another" different from the encouragement to "do what makes you happy"?
6. What is an area you're tempted to make a short-term decision based on happiness where you need others to encourage you toward the longer view?
