

Things Jesus Never Said, week four:

“Your Sins are Forgiven, Go and Do Whatever You Want”

John 8:2-11

1. What is something you once did that you don't do any more because you learned something different?
2. How teachable are you? What areas are you most teachable in? What areas are you the least teachable?
3. Read John 8:2-11. Jesus knew the woman would likely sin again at some point in her life. What do you think he meant by “Go and sin no more.”?
4. Have you ever taken forgiveness for granted?
5. What does it look like for us to take both sin and forgiveness seriously? How did Jesus take them both seriously?
6. How did this message help you understand or reframe your understanding of what it means to be a follower of Jesus?
