

As It Is In Heaven

Week three - "Party of the Eternity"

Revelation 21-22

Bottom line: If your view of heaven is anything less than a thrilling celebration, you're missing it!

1. Read Revelation 21:1-22:5
 - a. How does John describe the new creation?
 - b. What would feel different about the world we live in if everyone and everything acknowledged the presence and reality of God?
 - c. How would you be different if you were filled with the full knowledge and confidence of the presence of God?
2. What is it about our lives as Jesus followers that is, or should be, attractive to other people?
3. Are your expectations for the future filled with fear or with excitement? How are your expectations impacting the ways you live your life now?
4. Share your baptism story if you have one. Was it a celebration? How do you remember your baptism?
