Ministry Highlight

HOLA from Costa Rica!

We're back home in Costa Rica after a quick two weeks in the US. We joked with our taxi driver from the airport that we were experiencing a difference of 80 degrees from walking into the airport in MN to walking out in San Jose. And we're certainly not complaining!

While our time in the States was a whirlwind, we are so grateful for the chance to see so many of you face to face. After four and a half years of being gone we didn't really know what to expect. But we were blown away by how easy conversations flowed, your hospitality and generosity, the care and love of so many of you for us, the opportunity to speak at four churches, meet many new people, and see family again. We do not deserve your love, prayers, support or friendship but we are so incredibly grateful for you. God is so good to us and this time in the States was no exception.

There are lots of things we can contrast between our two cultures, but it's exciting that, as we jump back into what we do here with the local church, our goals are similar to what your faith community's goals are, whether you're in the US or elsewhere:

- That God would raise up leaders to serve and guide the local church
- That God would grow His Church

We may not be able to chat face-to-face very often, but we'd love to stay in touch, even via a short phone call or text to our US numbers. Here's our contact information (and it's always at the bottom of our letters):
