1. Forgiveness in marriage mainly involves trespasses (sins /trespasses/iniquities)

- | | |
|----------------|--|
| A. SIN | Transgressions of divine law

A willful or deliberate violation of moral law |
| B. TRESPASSES: | An unlawful act causing injury to a person or property

Wrongful entry upon the land of another

An encroachment or intrusion, offense, sin or wrong

Example – Football (American) Off-sides is encroachment
Example – Hunting – “No Sinning-?” / “No Trespassing” |
| C. INIQUITIES: | Gross injustice or wickedness

Evil or darkness, wicked acts, abominations (bad stuff) |

MEDIA

2. Trespasses are usually the issue in marriage

NOTE: We trespass on one another's opinions, thoughts, ways of doing things, view on processing of events.

Examples – Trash Story
– Making the bed
– Toothpaste
– Toilet paper

All really silly right? Welcome to I love you but don't really like you!

Unresolved trespasses lead to sin and iniquity (divorce and adultery)

1 Peter 4:8 (AMPC) Proverbs 10:12 (ref)
Daily interactions (trespasses)
It's not reference to ignoring continual affairs...

1 Corinthians 13:4-5 (NLT)
Love doesn't hold our weaknesses; faults and shortcomings against one another.

Love doesn't keep an active account of trespasses
"Let it go." (If you can't communicate)
