Free Grace Theology

Pillar 5 – Justification comes through faith alone, but rewards are obtained by works.

Romans 4:3-5

For what does the scripture say? “Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.”

Now to him who works, the wages are not counted as grace but as debt.

But to him who does not work but believes on Him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness.

Abraham believed God.

Abraham believed God.

Abraham was credited with righteousness.

Abraham believed God.

Abraham was credited with righteousness.

Work is due wages.

Work is due wages.

Wages is not grace, but a debt.

Abraham believed God.

Abraham was credited with righteousness.

Work is due wages.

Wages is not grace, but a debt.

Credited with righteousness comes not from a work, but to those who believe.

Abraham believed God.

Abraham was credited with righteousness.

Work is due wages.

Wages is not grace, but a debt.

Credited with righteousness comes not from a work, but to those who believe.

So, being credited with righteousness is not a payment, but a gift.

John 4:10

Jesus answered and said to her, “If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, ‘Give me a drink,’ you would have asked Him, and He would have given you living water.”

Eternal life,
Credited with righteousness,
Heaven,
Justification,

A gift, not a reward.

2 Corinthians 5:10

For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may be recompensed for his deeds in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.

If works do not save us, then why are our works to be judged?

Let's see if God's Word can answer that question.

suffering.

(antapodosis/repayment as an incurred obligation)
of the inheritance...

This inheritance is not a gift, but a reward or
