Jesus' Baptism: The Example and the Trinity

- Setting:
  - John the Baptist is baptizing at the Jordan River. People confess their sins and are baptized for repentance.
- Jesus' Unique Baptism:
  - Unlike others, Jesus had no sin to repent of. His baptism wasn't about personal repentance but about fulfilling all righteousness.
  - Jesus' ministry begins with the Holy Spirit descending on Him and a voice from heaven declaring, "You are my beloved Son; in you I am well pleased."
- Significance:
  - Jesus models dependence on the Holy Spirit, not self-reliance.
  - The Trinity is revealed: the Father (voice), the Son (Jesus), and the Holy Spirit (dove).
  - God's declaration over Jesus mirrors what He says to us through grace: "You are my child; I am pleased with you."
- Application:
  - We, too, are called to live by the Spirit, not our own strength.
  - Our identity and acceptance come from God's grace, not our performance.

The Genealogy of Jesus: God's Redemption Through the Ordinary

- Purpose of the Genealogy:
  - Luke wants us to know Jesus is a real person with a real, traceable lineage—He didn't appear out of nowhere.
  - The genealogy roots Jesus in human history, showing God works through flawed, unknown, or unlikely people.
- Mary's Line, Not Joseph's:
  - Luke's genealogy traces Jesus' lineage through Mary (not Joseph), fulfilling prophecy that the Messiah would come from David's line.
- Unexpected Lineage:
  - Many names are obscure—unknown to us, but known to God.
  - Jesus' line doesn't come through the "expected" royal line (Solomon's), but through Nathan, David's lesser-known son.
- Broken Promises and God's Faithfulness:
  - The royal line (Solomon's) was disqualified because of unfaithfulness (see Jeremiah 22:30's prophecy against Jeconiah).
  - God's promise to David (2 Samuel 7) was unconditional—He would bring a king from David's line, despite human failure.
  - God often fulfills His promises through the humble, the overlooked, and the broken—not through human effort or prestige.
- Key Example –Zerubbabel:

- Though Zerubbabel' s place in the line is complicated, God assures him (Zechariah 4:6): "Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit."
- God' s work is accomplished by His Spirit, not human strength or cleverness.

Lessons from David, Solomon, and Nathan

- David' s Story:
  - Even after great sin (David and Bathsheba), God redeems and brings fruitfulness through repentance.
  - The Messiah' s line continues not through Solomon (the "favored" son), but Nathan (the son named after the prophet who rebuked David).
- God' s Grace in Our Stories:
  - Our failures don' t disqualify us from God' s purposes. He uses those who are humble and depend on Him.
  - The list of names in Luke 3 is a testimony that God knows and uses the unknown and the unlikely for His redemptive plan.

Takeaways & Encouragement

- God Sees and Knows You:
  - You may feel unknown or unimportant, but God knows your name and has a purpose for you.
- Grace, Not Performance:
  - Our righteousness isn' t what brings God' s favor—His grace is.
- Faithfulness Through Generations:
  - God' s promises endure, despite human weakness or failure.
- Live by the Spirit:
  - Like Jesus, we are called to live and serve by the Spirit' s power, not our own.

Closing Prayer

The service closed with thanks for God' s Word and a prayer for blessing over the fellowship and breakfast, asking that everyone would know God' s careful attention and love for each of His people.

"What a blessing it is to read these names we can' t pronounce, people we don' t know, and know that You were paying careful attention...It' s enough for us to know that You have said, 'This is my Son.'"

God bless you!
