“Life to the Dead”

Ezekiel 37:1-14 (CSB)

“Like a huge grave, or charnel-house, or battle-field where the slain had not been buried. No servant of God would go without being sent to such a place, yet it was needful that Ezekiel should be there in order that he might understand and speak the message of God” – C.H Spurgeon

Only the Spirit of God can bring life to the dead.

There is the power of life in the spoken Word.

God is still in the business of bringing life to the dead.

When the Holy Spirit inspires words, spiritual responses occur.
