I.) Rationale:

This class is a requirement to receive a degree in Biblical Studies and/or degree in Pastoral Studies. It benefits the spiritual growth of every believer to study the word of God. Furthermore, it is imperative for every Christian worker who desires to be effective in the ministry to be familiar with every book in the Bible especially the epistles to the Church (2 Timothy 2:15). Studying the book of Romans is pivotal for every believer in understanding and appreciating salvation in Christ.

II. Course Aims and Outcomes:

Aims

For students to learn the background of the epistle, the main purpose for its writing, and the content of each chapter.

Specific Learning Outcomes: By the end of this course, students will:

Read, study, and be familiarized with every verse of this epistle. Students will also learn the main topics of each chapter.

III. Format and Procedures:

Majority of the class hour will be taught in lecture format. Students are encouraged to engage and participate in discussions and give proper insights on topics and/or lessons covered in class; questions are always welcomed. There will be tests in the course of the school year to assess students' progress in learning and to refresh their memory of lessons previously taught in class. All scripture studied and referred in this class will be from the King James Bible.

IV. Course Requirements:

Each student taking the class for credit are expected to faithfully attend the class, read assigned reading, and take written tests during the school year.
