

BRIDGE BUILDERS

For Discussion:

This fundamental intimacy, this real relational reality, we have lost, in defining truth to meet our needs. In fact how many here has been hurt relationally, because people argued truth, but never become the truth.

How did it effect you?

Three Key Questions for you and me...

1. We are called to be the TRUTH, living in the TRUTH, being the TRUTH...right?
2. If He, that is Truth, inspires us, how are we engaged to help others "meet" the TRUTH?
3. IS TRUTH really your reality or are you tied in a perception of truth, we sometimes call religion?
