

Rated E for Everyone – Activation

Discussion Questions:

What relevance does Jesus' death and resurrection have on our conversation about spiritual gifts? Why does it matter?

Of apostle, prophet, evangelist, shepherd, and teacher, what role do you think is most common in our church? Why do you think that?

Of apostle, prophet, evangelist, shepherd, and teacher, what role do you think is least represented in our church? Why do you think that is?

Have you taken the APEST test? If so, what were the results? Were you surprised by any of them? Why or why not?

There were four categories of gifts listed: leadership gifts, communication gifts, practical gifts, and sign gifts. Do you think the Canadian Church prioritizes any one category over the others? If so, which one? Do you think the church should prioritize any categories? Why or why not? If you said yes, which one should it prioritize? Why?

Have you taken the spiritual gifts test? If so, what were your results? Were you surprised by any of those results? Why or why not?

Is there a gift you wish you had, but don't believe you do? Why do you want that one? How would you use it if you had it?

Where and how do you believe God is calling you to invest your gifts this fall? Will you?