

Call to Prayer 2023 – Part 1 – Connecting Our Identity to Our Reality

Discussion Questions:

If someone were to describe you in 3 words, what would they be?

If you could use 3 words to define your spiritual identity, what would they be? Why?

How would you explain the similarities and the differences between an intellectual or factual “knowing” and a relational or experiential “knowing”?

It is important that our “knowing” God be relational and experiential instead of intellectual and factual? Why or why not?

In what areas of your life are you producing the “good fruit”? What areas of your life need work or improvement to produce “good fruit”?

Paul prayed that the Colossian believers would have the necessary endurance and patience. What did they likely need to endure? If he prayed this for us today, what would his request for us be? Why?
