- 1. What is one way God might be inviting you to connect UP with him this week? How might your connections with other believers help you to connect with God?
- 2. Are there any steps you need to take to connect IN relationship with others? Is there any hostility between you and others that Christ might want to tear down?
- 3. How might Jesus be inviting you into his heart to connect OUT to those beyond the walls of the church? Do any names come to mind of people you could show love to this week?
