

HOW CAN I HELP?

It is a rare occurrence that we find ourselves in a global circumstance in history that we all acknowledge is uncharted territory. In light of this, daily opportunities particular to this time can be as simple as writing a card or making a call to an isolated high-risk individual or a quarantined family or perhaps it's praying with or having a conversation with a fearful friend about the hope we have in Christ. As we intentionally seek to be Christlike, let's wisely act on our unique opportunities as well as reach out to be a part of some opportunities we've been approached with to help love and serve our broader Valley community:

FIRST OPPORTUNITY Vail Valley Salvation Army has already been serving those in quarantine and isolation, working through Public Health and Public Safety officials. However, we've been informed food is flying off the shelves and their next delivery is March 24th. They are in need of food. If you would like to give in this way, they suggest items such as mac and cheese, cereal, rice, bean, etc. Food can be dropped at 322 E Beaver Creek Blvd, Avon, CO 81620 from 9am to 5pm Monday through Friday. Volunteers to help organize and stock the shelves are always appreciated as well!

SECOND OPPORTUNITY The town of Avon has reached out to TVC to help staff childcare for their first responders and essential personnel who have lost their existing childcare options due to coronavirus closures. If you currently serve in TVC's children ministry or have experience working with early childhood or elementary aged children and have passed a background check, would you consider serving in this way? The town has offered to pay and will be operating the care Monday through Friday from 8am to 5pm. The town intends to offer care starting Monday, March 16th, and will accept whatever time an individual might be able to give. If you have young children of your own, they are welcome to come with you as well. Please e-mail Lance Richards at ljrichards@avon.org or call Lance at (970) 471-6621 to ask more questions or to let him know you are part of The Vail Church and interested in helping.

THIRD OPPORTUNITY Check in on a neighbor or someone you know who might be isolated and in need of assistance to ask how you might pray for them or help in this time. Also, if you personally have an immediate need, please reach out to us at contact@thevailchurch.com or post directly to our Facebook page to share with our TVC Family.

Please check our website daily for updates and additional opportunities to help.

Chalcedon Creed of 451

Following, then, the holy Fathers, we unite in teaching all men to confess the one and only Son, our Lord Jesus Christ. This selfsame one is perfect both in deity and in humanness; this selfsame one is also actually God and actually man, with a rational soul and a body. He is of the same reality as God as far as his deity is concerned and of the same reality as we ourselves as far as his humanness is concerned; thus like us in all respects, sin only excepted. Before time began he was begotten of the Father, in respect of his deity, and now in these “last days,” for us and behalf of our salvation, this selfsame one was born of Mary the virgin, who is God-bearer in respect of his humanness.

We also teach that we apprehend this one and only Christ-Son, Lord, only-begotten - in two natures; and we do this without confusing the two natures, without transmuting one nature into the other, without dividing them into two separate categories, without contrasting them according to area or function. The distinctiveness of each nature is not nullified by the union. Instead, the “properties” of each nature are conserved and both natures concur in one “person” and in one reality. They are not divided or cut into two persons, but are together the one and only and only-begotten Word of God, the Lord Jesus Christ. Thus have the prophets of old testified; thus the Lord Jesus Christ himself taught us; thus the Symbol of Fathers has handed down to us.
