

The Gospel of MARK

Community Group Questions Nov 28, 2021

Who then is this? Brian Kinley | Mark 4:35-41

Kicking Things Off

Share a time when you were truly afraid?

What do you tend to turn to when the storms of life hit?

Getting Into It

Read Mark 4:35-41

Who's idea was it to get in the boat to go to the other side? Why is that super important to notice in this account?

The storm comes up. Who ultimately is responsible for the storm?

What is Jesus doing in the midst of this fierce storm, a storm that scared even veteran fisherman?

How could Jesus be asleep in a storm like that?

Look at v. 38. Are the disciples telling Jesus something He doesn't know? What's underneath their question?

In what way are we like that when it comes to the concerns we bring to God?

In the midst of trials and hard times, do you ever find yourself questioning Jesus's care for you? How is that displayed in your life?

What does Jesus do? What does that tell us about Him and what kind of comfort does that bring to us?

The last two years have brought a lot of fear and anxiety to people's lives. As true believers in Jesus, what do we learn from this passage?

What Scriptures could you turn to in order to help you answer the doubts that creep into our lives about God's will and care for us?

The Parting Shot

What fears do you currently need to bring to God? Spend some time praying for one another.

