Speaker: Pastor Tony Orihuela

📖 Highlighted Scripture

Psalm 139:1–3 (KJV)

O Lord, thou hast searched me, and known me.
Thou knowest my downsitting and mine uprising,
thou understandest my thought afar off.
Thou compassest my path and my lying down,
and art acquainted with all my ways.

Hebrews 11:1 (KJV-style wording, referenced)

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

Romans 8:31 (KJV)

IF God be for us, who can be against us?

💬 Discussion Questions

- 1. Psalm 139 reminds us that God knows every part of us completely. How does knowing God sees your struggles and your potential change the way you view your future?
- 2. The speaker said fear is a tool of the enemy meant to keep us doubting ourselves. What fears have been holding you back from stepping into what God may be calling you to?

- 3. The message contrasts fear with faith. According to Hebrews 11:1, how does faith help us move forward even when we can't yet see the outcome?
- 4. The speaker encouraged listeners to stop defining themselves by past failures, hurts, or labels. What "box" might you need to break out of in this season?
- 5. "No more fear in 2026" was a clear declaration. What is one step of faith you can take this year to trust God more fully with your life and calling?

Reflection Challenge

This week, intentionally replace fear-based thinking with faith-filled truth.

Ask yourself daily:

- Am I listening to fear or to what God says about me?
- Am I focusing on my past or trusting God with my future?
- What small step of faith can I take today?

Remember:

- 👉 God knows you completely
- 👉 Fear does not define you
- 👉 Faith moves you forward

Prayer

Lord God,

Thank You for knowing us fully and loving us completely.

Help us release fear, past hurts, and limiting beliefs that do not come from You.

Teach us to walk by faith and trust You with what we cannot yet see.

Break every mindset that keeps us bound and help us step into the future You see for us.

May this be a year of freedom, courage, and breakthrough.

In Jesus' mighty name, Amen.
