Highlighted Scriptures (NIV)

- 1 Timothy 6:12 – Fight the good fight of the faith. Take hold of the eternal life to which you were called when you made your good confession in the presence of many witnesses.
- Luke 15:11–32 (Parable of the Prodigal Son)
- Deuteronomy 31:6 – He will never leave you nor forsake you.
- Psalm 55:22 – Cast your cares on the Lord and he will sustain you; he will never let the righteous be shaken.

Summary

Julie Pedroza delivers a powerful message centered on faith in the midst of struggle, reminding us of our call to "fight the good fight of faith." She emphasizes that faith isn't about a perfect life but about returning to God when we stumble — just like the prodigal son. Even in times of pain, isolation, and doubt, God remains faithful, never leaving us alone. Julie calls listeners to stay grounded in the Word, engage with the Body of Christ, and remember the gift of eternal life.

Discussion Questions

1. What does “fighting the good fight of faith” look like in your daily life?
2. Have there been times when life’s circumstances made you question your faith? How did you respond?
3. What practices help you stay grounded in faith when you feel distant from God?
4. Who in your life can be part of your faith support system, especially during hard times?

Reflection Challenge

This week, identify one area where you feel your faith is under attack. Write out a specific prayer or declaration based on 1 Timothy 6:12 and Psalm 55:22, and speak it daily.   Also, consider reaching out to someone in your church community and invite them to pray or walk with you through your struggle.

Prayer Prompt

“Lord, help me to fight the good fight of faith. When I’m weary, remind me that You’re with me. Help me to take hold of the eternal life You’ve promised and not let go. Thank You for never leaving or forsaking me. Strengthen my faith each day. In Jesus’ name, Amen.”  **
