Song of Preparation:

Call Him Good

Call to Worship

Psalm 9:1–10

- [1] I will give thanks to the LORD with my whole heart;
I will recount all of your wonderful deeds.
- [2] I will be glad and exult in you;
I will sing praise to your name, O Most High.
- [3] When my enemies turn back,
they stumble and perish before your presence.
- [4] For you have maintained my just cause;
you have sat on the throne, giving righteous judgment.
- [5] You have rebuked the nations; you have made the wicked perish;
you have blotted out their name forever and ever.
- [6] The enemy came to an end in everlasting ruins;
their cities you rooted out;
the very memory of them has perished.
- [7] But the LORD sits enthroned forever;
he has established his throne for justice,
- [8] and he judges the world with righteousness;
he judges the peoples with uprightness.
- [9] The LORD is a stronghold for the oppressed,
a stronghold in times of trouble.
- [10] And those who know your name put their trust in you,
for you, O LORD, have not forsaken those who seek you. (ESV)

Scripture Reading

Romans 2:1–11

[1] Therefore you have no excuse, O man, every one of you who judges. For in passing judgment on another you condemn yourself, because you, the judge, practice the very same things. [2] We know that the judgment of God rightly falls on those who practice such things. [3] Do you suppose, O man—you who judge those who practice such things and yet do them yourself—that you will escape the judgment of God? [4] Or do you presume on the riches of his kindness and forbearance and patience, not knowing that God's kindness is meant to lead you to repentance? [5] But because of your hard and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath for yourself on the day of wrath when God's righteous judgment will be revealed.

[6] He will render to each one according to his works: [7] to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, he will give eternal life; [8] but for those who are self-seeking and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, there will be wrath and fury. [9] There will be tribulation and distress for every human being who does evil, the Jew first and also the Greek, [10] but glory and honor and peace for everyone who does good, the Jew first and also the Greek. [11] For God shows no partiality. (ESV)
