Holy Marriage

1 Peter 3:1-7

- 1) How does Peter encourage wives to win over their husbands without words? What does this suggest about the power of actions and attitudes in relationships?
- 2) What does it mean for a wife's beauty to come from her inner self? How can this concept transform our understanding of beauty and value?
- 3) Peter mentions the "unfading beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit." What are some practical ways to cultivate such a spirit in our lives?
- 4) In verse 7, husbands are instructed to "live with your wives in an understanding way." What does this look like in practice, and why is it important?
- 5) How do these verses challenge traditional gender roles? In what ways do they affirm the equality and mutual respect between husbands and wives?
- 6) Peter uses the example of Sarah and Abraham to illustrate his points. What can we learn from their relationship dynamics?

but let your adorning be the hidden person of the heart with the imperishable beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which in God's sight is very precious.

- 7) How can we apply the principles in these verses to other relationships, such as friendships or co-workers?
- 8) How does the concept of being "heirs together of the grace of life" impact the way we view marriage and our roles within it?
