Who is Like YHWH in His Judgment? (Part 2)

As A Group...

1. Spend time praying for one another.
2. Talk about each member's "one" friend or family member who doesn't know Christ. Pray for them by name and encourage and hold one another accountable to share the gospel or offer an invitation to the "one."
3. Plan an activity that you can invite unchurched neighbors to so that you can get to know the people around your group.
4. Encourage and hold each other accountable in the area of serving. Where is each member serving in the body of Christ and the kingdom?
1. We know that God's judgment comes upon His people when they fall into idolatry. But, why does God take the way His people live in relationship with one another just as seriously as idolatry?
2. Jesus said, in Matthew 22, that the greatest command is to "love God with all your heart and all your mind" and to "love your neighbor as yourself." Why are these two statements/commands combined into one? Why are they inseparable?
3. On a practical level, what does it look like for us to love one another?
4. On a practical level, what does it look like for us to be devoted to one another's wellbeing?
5. In Micah 2, we see that the people of Judah and Israel corrupted and abused God's blessing. How is this a failure in our own lives and how does it contribute to our failure to love and be devoted to one another's wellbeing?
6. In Micah 2, we see that the people of Judah and Israel corrupted and abused God's word. How is this a failure in our own lives and how does it contribute to our failure to love and be devoted to one another's wellbeing?
7. In Micah 3, we see that the people of Judah and Israel corrupted and abused God's good standard of justice. How is this a failure in our own lives and how does it contribute to our failure to love and be devoted to one another's wellbeing?
8. What is something God wants to change in your life?
