PRAYER

Sunday, January 23 — Spiritual activity can be wearisome to the physical body. Pray that your friends who are walking closely with Jesus will keep watching and praying that they may not enter into temptation (Matthew 26:41).

Monday, January 24 — Paul asked the Colossian believers to be devoted to prayer and to stay alert in it with an attitude of thanksgiving. Pray that your church family will do the same (Colossians 4:2).

Tuesday, January 25 — Pray that we will trust the Spirit to show us in very practical ways how to love our neighbors as we love ourselves (Matthew 22:39).

Wednesday, January 26 — Pray that your church family will be committed to the process of stimulating each other to love and good deeds (Hebrews 10:24).

JOIN US AT 6:30PM FOR HOUSE OF PRAYER IN THE FELLOWSHIP SUITE

Thursday, January 27 — Even though we were called to freedom from the law, pray that we will not turn our freedom in Christ into an opportunity to gratify the flesh, but through love will serve each other through the power of the Spirit (Galatians 5:13).

JOIN US AT 6:00AM IN THE WORSHIP CENTER FOR PRAYER

Friday, January 28 — Pray that our service to Christ will flow out of our love relationship with Him in the power of the Holy Spirit, not in religious forms to try to earn our own righteousness (Romans 7:6).

Saturday, January 29 — Paul said he worked hard to present every man complete in Christ, striving according to God's power which mightily worked within him (Colossians 1:28-29). As we minister to others, pray that we too will work by God's power instead of our own.
