The God of peace will soon crush Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
(Romans 16:20)

Holy Church

1 Peter 5:1-5

- 1) What expectations do people have for pastors and other ministers within the church?
- 2) Do these expectations typically line up with the Bible's requirements? Why or why not?
- 3) How is the role and responsibilities of the pastor intended to reflect Jesus to the Church?
- 4) Why is it important for leaders to be humble and not domineering over those in their care, as stated in verse 3?
- 5) How does God's design for the Church reflect His character and love for His people?
- 6) How can we clothe ourselves with humility towards one another, as encouraged in verse 5?
- 7) How and why is humility the key for both leaders in the church as well as church members and their relationship to one another?

Clothe yourselves, all of you, with humility toward one another, for “God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble.”

- 8) What is something God taught you through this passage that you didn't previously know?
- 9) What changes do you need to make in your life in order to live in obedience to what God is teaching you?
