Kingdom Without End

As A Group...

1. SPEND SOME TIME SHARING WITH EACH OTHER AND PRAISING GOD FOR WHAT HE IS DOING IN YOUR LIFE.

2. TAKE SOME TIME TO SHARE WHAT GOD IS TEACHING YOU.

3. TAKE SOME TIME TO SHARE WHAT YOU'RE ASKING GOD TO DO IN YOUR LIFE AND PRAY FOR EACH OTHER.

1. Read the passage (Mark 16:15-20) and answer the following questions:
2. As we bring our series through Mark to a close, take some time to think back through Mark's Gospel. What are some of the most significant things God has taught you through this story of Jesus's life and ministry?
3. Jesus's final words to his disciples were a command to proclaim the good news of the kingdom until he returns. The command, "Go" means "as you go about your way (your daily life)." Would you say that you intentionally try to live out Jesus's Great Commission in your daily life?
4. What are some practical ways you can live out the command to "go into all the world and preach the gospel"?
5. What are some barriers that keep you from doing this?
6. How does Jesus's promise that the message will be empowered change the way you live out the Great Commission?
7. Spend some time talking about how you will live out this command this week, pray for each other, and commit to holding each other accountable throughout the week and at your next Life Group gathering.
