

-
1. Don't Fall for the _____ of the Religious (v. 1-3)
 - a. He tells them that the religious hypocrisy of the Pharisees and the scribes is dangerous because it is _____ like leaven.
 - b. Jesus is using the leaven illustration to speak of how _____ the evil teachings of the religious elite were.
 2. Don't Be _____ For Your Life (v. 4-7)
 - a. This is the first time in Luke that Jesus calls his disciples "_____."
 - b. Jesus uses two practical illustrations to help encourage them to remember not only how powerful God is over your eternal _____, but remember that God has intimate _____ of you as his child.
 - c. God has all the _____ over you and the _____ concern for you.
 3. Don't Fail to _____ Christ (v. 8-10)
 - a. Jesus is _____ the conversation to eternal matters of the end times.
 - b. They will want to be liked by the religiously powerful, but Jesus says a choice to be _____ by the religious on earth will be a choice to be _____ by Christ in heaven.
 4. Don't Forget the _____ of the Holy Spirit (v. 11-12)
 - a. This doesn't mean they won't have to go through difficulty and trials for their faith, but it does mean that God won't _____ them and that God will _____ them and that God will _____ them.
 - b. "The ultimate goal of the Spirit's intervention is not to get the accused _____ but to convict the _____ of the truth of the gospel" (David Garland, Matthew, 506).

We can and should stand _____ in the face of persecution, and we should stand with _____ that if given the opportunity to defend ourselves, the Holy Spirit will give us the words to say. Even in death of the saints, the _____ will not be bound or shut down.