Keys to a Better Marriage

Small Groups Discussion Questions

Week 1: Meant To Be (Read Genesis 2:21–24)

1. Foundational and Formational

Question: Why do you think a biblical understanding of marriage is so foundational—often described as the most important human relationship? How does this shape or challenge your view of marriage?

2. One Flesh

Question: What makes the husband-and-wife relationship unique compared to all other relationships? Why do you think the idea of “one flesh” matters?

3. God’s Idea Works

Question: How can a healthy marriage reflect something about God’s character or design? In what ways might that impact how others see faith?

4. Count Your Blessings

Question: The message said, “It’s the bond of marriage that creates the blessings.” What are some blessings that can grow out of a strong marital bond?

5. It’s Not Automatic (Read Romans 12:10)

Question: Marriage doesn’t stay strong by accident—it’s built through intentional honor. What are some simple, practical ways we can show honor in relationships?
