Communion

We receive the Lord’s Supper with the glad confidence that Jesus’ body and blood is ‘Given and shed for you for the forgiveness of sins’ in, with, and under the bread and wine of Holy Communion. Our Lord invites to His table baptized Christians who trust His words, repent of all sin, and set aside any refusal to forgive and love as He forgives and loves us. Gluten-free wafers are available by request. Alcohol-free wine is provided at the center of the tray of individual cups.

Distribution Songs: I’m Listening, This Is Our God

Breakout Groups will take place for all youth next Sunday, November 2nd from 5-7pm here at Hope! This is a time for Jr. High and High School students to gather to discuss a topic and then breakout into smaller groups by age and gender for further conversation. Dinner Provided!

A new 13-week session of Grief Share will begin on Sunday, November 2nd at 3pm in the Overflow room. If you are grieving the loss a loved one you are welcome to join this group as they go through the Grief Share program. Contact the church office for more information.

Hope Lutheran has once again committed to providing 150 complete Thanksgiving Baskets to Lubbock Impact this Thanksgiving for those in need in the community. Each basket can be sponsored for $30 through Hope giving or through cash or check in the offering plate! Your $30 donation provides a family with a turkey and main ingredients for a thanksgiving meal!

Download our app and also grab information on how to set up giving and how to join groups from the welcome desk!

The new app will host Hope's media content, online giving (which will no longer work on Pushpay), and communication with groups!
