

Praise the LORD,
O My Soul

The background of the slide is a dense layer of autumn leaves in various shades of yellow, orange, and brown. A horizontal dotted line runs across the top and bottom of the text area.

Praise the LORD, my soul;
all my inmost being, praise his holy name.
² Praise the LORD, my soul,
and forget not all his benefits—³ who forgives all your sins and heals all your diseases, ⁴ who redeems your life from the pit and crowns you with love and compassion, ⁵ who satisfies your desires with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. Ps 103:1-

I'm so thankful to have been a part of Highpoint Community Church of Orange Park for 13 years. When Warren and I were separated in 2008/9, I decided on a whim to borrow a tent from my cousins (Michelle & Scott) and go on our church camping trip. Pastor Mike met me at Panera so I could follow him to the campground. When we got there I had this tent that I knew nothing about (with so.many.poles.) and I was very fragile-hearted at the time...about 6 gentlemen came to my aid to set up the massive structure. I felt cared for and comforted the entire weekend (Robbie, Michael). It's hard to have these memories pop up on facebook and remind me of the awful time in our marriage. But, it's amazing to also remember the people and this church that have been caring for us through the bad times and the good. We've seen a lot of changes and people come and go, but the spirit and love in this church remains the same. #doingREALlifetogether
