

HOPE

The Meaning of Hope

HOPE

Hope was a promise

Hope became a person

“As he passed by, he saw a man blind from birth. And his disciples asked him, “Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?” Jesus answered, “It was not that this man sinned, or his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. We must work the works of him who sent me while it is day; night is coming, when no one can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.” Having said these things, he spit on the ground and made mud with the saliva. Then he anointed the man's eyes with the mud and said to him, “Go, wash in the pool of Siloam” (which means Sent). So he went and washed and came back seeing.”

John 9:1-7 (esv)

“To them God chose to make known how great among the Gentiles are the riches of the glory of this mystery, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.”

Colossians 1:27 (esv)

The background is a close-up of a wooden surface with a vertical grain. The word "HOPE" is written in large, bold, block letters. Each letter is a different color: 'H' is dark brown, 'O' is reddish-orange, 'P' is bright orange, and 'E' is dark blue. The letters are set against a dark, almost black, rectangular background that makes them stand out.

Hope is waiting to be sent through you
