

A Complicated Christmas | THE SOUND OF CHRISTMAS

Luke 2:1-7

As many of you know...I love hallmark movies. →Hallmark is great because its complicated...in a very VERY predictable way. →TWEET: "I fell asleep..." →TWEET: Every Hallmark PLOT →Luke 2:1-7

→Summary: Let's face it, Christmas can be...complicated. Marjorie Holmes famously stated, "At Christmas, all roads lead home." But do we want to go home? "Home" is complicated. The "idea" of going home for Christmas can amplify our feelings of disconnectedness, family conflict, & emotional isolation. And yet, each of us have a deep desire to belong, to be loved, and for our hearts to be settled at home. Maybe this Christmas, our definition of "home" needs to change. We need a definition that transcends the complications. We need Christmas to be...SIMPLE.

→Where is home for YOU this Christmas?

Luke 2:1-7: 2 At that time the Roman emperor, Augustus, decreed that a census should be taken throughout the Roman Empire. 2 (This was the first census taken when Quirinius was governor of Syria.) 3 All returned to their own ancestral towns to register for this census. 4 And because Joseph was a descendant of King David, he had to go to Bethlehem in Judea, David's ancient home. He traveled there from the village of Nazareth in Galilee. 5 He took with him Mary, to whom he was engaged, who was now expecting a child.

6 And while they were there, the time came for her baby to be born. 7 She gave birth to her firstborn son. She wrapped him snugly in strips of cloth and laid him in a manger, because there was no lodging available for them.

1. Where/what is home for me? Where I am from? Where do I have family?
2. What makes Christmas complicated for me? What are the tensions I wrestle with at this time of year?
3. Is the church a home where people feel loved, welcomed, and known? Why or why not?
4. How does changing the definition of home to where Christ dwells a more transcendent definition of home?
5. PRAYER: "Father, help me experience the simplicity of being with you this Christmas season and help me help others experiences that, too."

"Christmas is a time when you get homesick - even when you're home." - Carol Nelson

"At Christmas, all roads lead home." - Marjorie Holmes

"Holmes' husband Lynn Mighell rose eventually to become a top executive with the Carrier Corporation. He died of cancer in 1979 after years of illness. During the period of her grieving, Holmes wrote the book To Help You Through the Hurting. In 1981, when she was 70, Holmes met physician George Schmieler. Both had lost their mates after nearly 50 years of marriage. Schmieler, grieving the loss of his wife six months earlier, had discovered a book his wife had been reading, I've Got to Talk to Somebody, God by Marjorie Holmes. Six weeks later he traced Holmes through relatives, called her unlisted phone number and announced, "I love you. You saved my life." She agreed to meet him and, nineteen weeks after they met, Holmes and Schmieler were married. They moved to Pittsburgh, where they lived until his death in 1992. Holmes dedicated books to him, including Three From Galilee. She also wrote the book Second Wife, Second Life specifically about him. Holmes returned to the area of Washington D.C. to live after his death." - Wikipedia
