“No shrub of the field had yet grown on the land, and no plant of the field had yet sprouted, for the LORD God had not made it rain on the land, and there was no man to work the ground. But water would come out of the ground and water the entire surface of the land.”

GENESIS 7:11

An aerial photograph of a dense forest, tilted slightly clockwise. The forest floor is covered in green vegetation, with a prominent diagonal line of lighter green suggesting a path or a clearing. In the upper right corner, a bright, hazy light source, possibly the sun, creates a strong lens flare and illuminates the surrounding trees. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of green, from deep forest greens to bright yellows and whites near the light source.

2ND PETER 3:5-7

(pg. 668)

“For Christ’s love compels us, since we have reached this conclusion: If One died for all, then all died. And He died for all so that those who live should no longer live for themselves, but for the One who died for them and was raised.”

GOD VIEWS SIN SERIOUSLY

“Even though every living creature must have been drowned long before that, such a lengthened continuance of the flood was designed to manifest God’s stern displeasure at sin and sinners.”

“Every creature perished—those that crawl on the earth, birds, livestock, wildlife, and those that swarm on the earth, as well as all mankind. Everything with the breath of the spirit of life in its nostrils —everything on dry land died. He wiped out every living thing that was on the surface of the ground, from mankind to livestock, to creatures that crawl, to the birds of the sky, and they were wiped off the earth.”

GENESIS 7:21-23

“When the necessity is greatest,
then is the help at the nearest, and the highest. When sin become most powerful, then grace, and the miracles of grace, become most mighty for deliverance.”

GENESIS 7:24

“Only Noah was left, and those that were with him in the ark.”

God is our refuge and strength,
a helper who is always found
in times of trouble.

Therefore we will not be afraid,
*though the earth trembles
and the mountains topple
into the depths of the seas,
though its waters roar and foam
and the mountains quake with its turmoil.*
