Jacob's Journey to Haran and Back

Now Jacob went out from Beersheba and went toward Haran. So he came to a certain place and stayed there all night, because the sun had set. And he took one of the stones of that place and put it at his head, and he lay down in that place to sleep. Then he dreamed, and behold, a ladder was set up on the earth, and its top reached to heaven; and there the angels of God were ascending and descending on it. And behold, the LORD stood above it and said: "I am the LORD God of Abraham your father and the God of Isaac; the land on which you lie I will give to you and your

An aerial view of Earth from space, showing the curvature of the planet and a bright sun on the horizon. The sun is a large, glowing orb on the left side of the frame, casting a bright light across the scene. The Earth's surface is visible below, with a mix of green and brown colors, suggesting a mix of land and water. The sky is a deep, dark blue, and the overall atmosphere is serene and majestic.

Walk By FAITH

“Hesitate, my dear friend, while you are not sure that it is God’s will; but when once you are certain that it is according to the Lord’s mind, it will be unfaithfulness to God to have any kind of fear. Steam straight ahead, for that way lies your haven.”

Spurgeon
