but to induce sin.”

SPURGEON

πειρασμός

peirasmos / temptation; test; trial

If we value comfort more than character, then trials will upset us. If we value the material and physical more than the spiritual, we will not be able to “count it all joy.” If we live only for the present and forget the future, then trials will make us bitter, not better.

Analysis Paralysis

over-analyzing (or over-thinking) a situation so that a decision or action is never taken.

“He gives according to his excellent greatness; as Alexander the Great gave a poor man a city; and when he modestly refused it as too great for him, Alexander answered, “The business is not what thou are fit to receive, but what it becometh me to give.””
