Read: 1 Corinthians 13:1-13

- Functioning in the gifts of God without love is like a gong making noise. Why do you think the Bible describes our actions like this?
 - Why is love so important?
- Jesus tells us to speak in truth and love. Do you tend to lean more towards truth or love?
 - How has the Holy Spirit guided you to be more truthful or more loving?
- How does 1 Corinthians 13 speak of love as an action rather than an emotion?
- Why do you think love 'keeps no record of the wrongs'?
- What does it mean to always hope?

Works:

(Take some time for personal reflecting on the following questions and then share back with the group)

- Faith, hope and love remain, but the greatest is love because it has eternal value.
 - What areas of your life is the Holy Spirit addressing?
 - How can you show God's love to those around you?
 - How has 1 Cor 13 challenged your view of love and how can you practically implement that in your life?

Closing:

(Remember to ask for prayer requests.)

Pray that God's Spirit may give us insight into loving others well, knowing that we are loved by Him.
