Before reading the scripture:

- What is the gospel message and why is it important to share it with the people around us?
- Do you think sharing the gospel is optional? Why/why not?

Read: Romans 10:8-15

- The passage says that the word is first in our hearts and in our mouths. Why is it important for the gospel message to work in you before working through you?
- What do you think it means to be 'sent' to proclaim the good news?
- Do you think it is the responsibility of all Christians to share the good news of the gospel? Why?
- How can you share the gospel in your context?
- What makes it hard for people to proclaim the good news?
- Why do you think the feet of the one who shares the gospel will be blessed?

Works:

(Take some time for personal reflecting on the following questions and then share back with the group)

- Are you willing to share the gospel with others? In what way have you been called to share the gospel with others?
- Who has God placed around you that needs to hear the gospel?
- What is stopping you from sharing the good news?

Closing:

(Remember to ask for prayer requests.)

Pray for one another to have the boldness, grace, love and truth to share the gospel with those God has given them in the place where God has called them to.
