Before reading the scripture:

- If the enemy had to attack ‘unity’ in your life, which area would he attack first? Why?
- What do you think it means to be a living sacrifice? What does this look like practically?

Read: Romans 12:1-21

- God calls us to be living - not dead - sacrifices, meaning we have to willingly place ourselves on the altar and surrender to the will and purpose of God. What does surrendering to God look like in your life?
- How can we remain on the ‘altar’ in surrender, not going back and forth between surrender and doing our own will?
- Do not think too highly of yourself, but also do not talk yourself out of God’s will for your life. Are you more prone to thinking too much or too little about yourself? How is God challenging you to change your view of yourself to how He views you?
- In what areas of your life have you perhaps lacked zeal? How might we regain this?.

Works:

(Take some time for personal reflecting on the following questions and then share back with the group)

- What does it practically look like to repay evil with good?
- Taking revenge is not fighting against people, but it is pitting ourselves against God. In what ways can you make practical changes to repay evil with good?

Closing:

(Remember to ask for prayer requests.)

Pray that we may remain surrendered to God and His will for ourselves.
