Series Title: Not Just for Kids: Genesis 3
Scripture: Genesis 2:15-3:21

Points to Consider:

How the Catastrophic Events of Genesis 3 Affect Us Today and What God Has Done About It

Man's Freedom (Genesis 2:15-17)

Man's Failure (Genesis 3:1-7)

Man's Frustration (Genesis 3:8-19)

God's Forgiveness (Genesis 3:21)

Discussion Questions:

In Genesis 3, what factors contributed to Adam and Eve's decision to disobey God? How does their experience with temptation relate to our own experiences with temptation and decision-making today?

Discuss the consequences of Adam and Eve's disobedience as outlined in Genesis 3. How do these consequences affect humanity today? How does the concept of redemption introduced later in the Bible offer hope in the midst of these consequences?

Genesis 3 portrays God's response to Adam and Eve's sin. How do God's actions in response to their disobedience reveal His character? Discuss the balance between God's justice and His mercy as seen in this passage and its implications for understanding God's relationship with humanity.
