

At a place called Golgotha, Jesus was crucified. Some of the Roman soldiers divided up his clothing by casting lots. Above Jesus' head, the soldiers placed a sign saying, "This is Jesus, the King of the Jews."