Look and See

Message Scripture: Luke 5:12-16, The Message

Do we see the people who are searching for God's love? Do we recognize the longing for wholeness, the search for peace, the attempts at hope? There are people all around us who don't look like us, act like us, think like us, experience God like us. When we begin to look at people the way Jesus does, really see them, we begin a journey of sharing our faith that meets people right where they are, even if that place is unfamiliar to us.

Prayer

Gracious God, help me to see the people you see. Open my eyes to those you have put in my path and move my heart and mind to respond to your leading, whatever that may be. I want to see people the way you see them and love them the way you love them. Amen.

Questions for Reflection

When have you felt like an outsider or like you didn't fit in?
Who are the people you see in your everyday life that you are tempted to overlook?
How can you be more intentional about truly seeing people in the coming week?
