

DESERT ENCOUNTERS

Desert Conversations

Last week we left Philip and the Ethiopian on a desert road. It wasn't clear what would happen next. That is familiar territory for many of us. We wonder what lies ahead. If we are willing to overcome prejudice and preconceived notions, unexpected encounters and conversations can bring insight and direction.

Message Scripture: Acts 8:29-35

Prayer

Dear God, help me to put aside prejudice and preconceived notions, so I am open to you and others. Amen.

Daily Scriptures

08.30.26 • Acts 8:29-35

08.31.26 • Isaiah 53:7-8

09.01.26 • Acts 10:1-8

09.02.26 • Acts 10:9-23

09.03.26 • Acts 10:24-38

09.04.26 • Acts 10:29-48

09.05.26 • 1 Samuel 16:7

Questions for Reflection

How have unexpected conversations led you to new insight?
What are prejudices you are seeking to overcome?

Learn More

The New Interpreters Commentary

Vol. IX Acts

Abingdon Press