

SALT & LIGHT

Salt That Remains Pure, Light That Honors the Poor

James challenges favoritism and partiality, reminding us that loving our neighbor means loving all our neighbors. This week we explore how valuing the poor and marginalized is essential to faithful discipleship. Pure salt and bright light honor Christ.

Message Scriptures: Matthew 5:13-16, Matthew 7:1-5, James 2:1-13

Prayer

Dear God, help me to approach others with mercy rather than judgment.
Amen.

Daily Scriptures

08.02.26 • Matthew 7:1-5

08.03.26 • James 2:1-13

08.04.26 • Matthew 5:13-16

08.05.26 • James 2:14-17

08.06.26 • James 2:18-20

08.07.26 • James 2:21-23

08.08.26 • James 2:24-26

Questions for Reflection

Why do you think scripture speaks so consistently about God's love for the poor?

How do class, appearance, status or ability affect how we treat others?

When has God transformed your original impression or judgment of someone for the better?

Learn More

The Message of Jesus

By Adam Hamilton

Being United Methodist Christians

By Ann Langdon

Micro Practices for Justice Ministry

By Tex Sample