Message Scripture: Matthew 25:31-46, The Message

One of the most persistent complaints about “church people” today is that they don’t act any better or any more loving than people who aren’t Christians. How we live when we think no one is watching is the true witness others experience. We are transformed into the likeness of Christ when we let the Holy Spirit guide and lead us, then we are changed from the inside out and our lives testify to Christ’s agape love.

Prayer

All loving God, I want my life to reflect you in every way. Change my heart. Make me be like you. Renew my mind, and transform me into your likeness. Let the love that you have showered over me flow out of me. Help me to love and serve you by loving and serving others throughout this day. Amen.
