ENGAGE WORKER PRAYER:

Betty Welch, Wycliffe Bible Translators - Colombia (Retired), Grace-sent

After 66 years of faithful ministry, Betty Welch has retired from Wycliffe Bible Translators. We thank the Lord for Betty and her contribution to the work of Bible translation, as she participated in a global movement of seeing Scripture translated for all people.

Betty began service in the Colombia Branch in September 1962 as the Director's Secretary, then served as Linguist/Translator beginning July 1963. She and a teammate finished a translation of the New Testament in the Tucano language of Colombia, which was published and distributed in 1988. Then, they worked on portions of the Old Testament in Tucano and a revision of the New Testament, which was then published together in 2015. After this important milestone, Betty continued working on the translation of the Old Testament book of Daniel, a Tucano hymn book, a Tucano dictionary, and additional Tucano stories.

Today we honor Betty's incredible dedication to the ministry God called her to 66 years ago and Grace Bible Church's partnership with Wycliffe and Betty throughout those years. In her retirement, Betty will remain in Tyler, Texas. She would appreciate your prayers as she faces various health challenges.
