

Marching Orders – Our Marching Orders Discussion Questions

Many men have been taught to be the “strong silent” type and that this is what a man is meant to be. What is wrong with a man being emotionally distant?

How have you benefited from another man’s heart-care ministry towards you? How have you felt the lack of it?

Genesis 2:15 shows us that men are to protect what is under their care. What are some threats to people or things under your care? What are some ways you should be thinking about your calling to keep them safe?
